The next was the act of 1802. "An act to establish a nuiform rule of naturalization, and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on that subject.

The language of this act as to the naturalization of children by the naturaliza-ris has already been adjudicated by some of the highest courts in the country, and there is no danger of any more "the flaps in city affairs" on Mr. Morris's account. We do not suppose he will contest the election if he should be beaten or ousted by the Conneil after elected.

In conclusion I must say that Mr. Morris has claims upon the citizens of Louis, illuming high should the best the should the made with little or to expense. Marging lands always find ready sale. Probable Removai of Gov. Throckmorton.

An effort will soon be made to induce Gen. Sheridan to remove Gov. Throck-morton, of Texas. If Throckmorton is removed and the appointment of a Union man selected, no matter what the desire of the administration may be, the law requires all officers to take the iron-clad test oath. Throckmorton cannot take it, in the State who can. Among them are Judge Baschoe, Judge Sherwood, and Judge Thomas, all radical Unionists. Schenck Won't be Governor Gen. Schenck has not decided to ac

A SOLULE KILLED BY HIS CAPTAIN. -We have received, from what we regard as good authority, the following particulars of a homicide at Jefferson Barracks yesterday morning. We give a plain statement, reserving comment for the

A private of the 3d regular light artil-ry, whose name was not learned, was lery, whose name was not reason, killed by a Captain of the same regiment, whose name is Marnell about 9 o'clock. A recruit made complaint to the Captain that the man was annoying him, where upon Maruell went up to the man and dealt him a blow in the neck with his fist The man fell to the floor, and was kicked while lying there. He was then thrown into his bunk, from which he was pulled and again kicked by the Captain. It is said that he died from injuries received during this kicking process. The Orderly Sergeaut of the company to which the soldier belonged started a man to notify the Chroner, but the soldier was stopped by some authority, and the Orderly was placed under arrest. If an officer of the army has committed brutal mirder, as this would seem to be, e should be dealt with by the civil authorities and the severest penalty meted out to him. The Corner will hold an in-quest this morning.—St. Louis Times,
